² Students will take ANTH 470 in the fall semester following their participation in a field school

³ PESS 121 is a required one-credit course in health and wellness. It may be taken at any time in a student's career.

⁴ All anthropology must take one summer field school, either in archaeology or cultural anthropology. Archaeology field schools are offered in even-numbered summers; cultural anthropology field schools in odd-numbered summers.
